GREGG DAY

Registered & Unregistered Rams

Swaledale Rams -85 Forward

“Gregg Day” sale of all classes of breeding rams and sheep was deemed a great success with a great atmosphere and buzz around the market in which of everything could have been sold. The sale was kindly sponsored by WE & MG Redfearn Ltd, Fencing Supplies and Agri Lloyd who were represented Aine Devlin.

The sale commenced with the breeding rams. The second show and sale of Swaledale breeding was judged by Seth Guy and Laurie Blades and we thank these two young shepherds for their time and expertise. The champion rosette was awarded to the first prize shearling from R Hutchinson & Son, Valley Farm sired by the Neil Richardson tup that went onto sell for £1200. The sale topped £2000 for a much-admired powerful Swaledale shearling from RT Tennant, Kilnsey. Other leading Swaledale shearling prizes were £850 from JR Addison & Son, Bowes and £750 from G Calvert & Sons, Keld. Swaledale aged tups topped at £400 from JH Capstick, Ravenstonedale. Plenty of Swaledale shearling tups selling between £250 and £550 with all Swaledale tups forward averaged £273.47.
