47 PRIME HOGGS

The prime hogg trade has eased with the trade peaked twice at £130 for Cheviots and Southdowns followed by Beltex hogs to £128 and £125 for Cheviots.

CAST EWES

398 forward and trade just slightly less than last week and buyers preferring clipped ewes especially the Swaledales. Texels from WN Avison & Son topped trade at £180 & £178 and a further 7 lots were £140 plus. Suffolks peaked at £175 & £162. Mules a good level trade topped at £142 from J & JH Whaley and were regularly above £120 mark with 10 lots between £122- £142. Roughfell sold to £125 for a cracking pen of 13 ewes from E & K Bland. Swaledales similar trade to last week for the top stronger sorts peaking at £108 from JC & N Throup with 9 lots between £84- £108. Leaner freshly spained would be slightly cheaper between £30-£55 and with grazing men starting look clipped ewes would be to an advantage. Rams only a few forward and they topped at £160 for shearling Cheviot from RJ Lund and Swaledales to £108 from JS & S Atkinson.
