1276 PRIME LAMBS

The weekly sale of prime lambs had an increased entry of 1276 forward selling to a market average well in line with national market averages of 275p/kg. Once again well fleshed and lambs with weight continue to be eagerly bid for. The sale sold to a top of £160 for heavy weight Suffolks from Jess Labbate. Other leading prices for Suffolk lambs was £146 from L Bosomworth, who sold three pens to £140.

Well fleshed shapely continental lambs continue to sell in excess of the 300p/kg with the consignment from JR & LA Capstick, Killington topping at 325p/kg or £152 for Beltex lambs purchased by C Steadman Butchers, Kirkby Stephen. Continental lambs topped at £157 for 51kg Texels from R Mudd & Sons, Askrigg. Other leading prices saw Beltex lambs sold to £149 from R Marwood & Son. Heavy weight Texels from A Lodge, Malham Moor sold to £149. Plenty more pens of well fleshed good conformation lambs sold in the one hundred and forties.

Good to see the number of hill lambs coming forward continuing to increase and being keenly sought after by buyers with the consignment of well finished lambs from BD & PM Gill and Son selling to a top of £140. This was followed by the consignment of Mule lambs selling to £139 from J Allison & Sons followed by £136 from J Scarr & Sons with late forty kilogram well fleshed mules selling in excess of the one hundred and thirty mark.

CAST EWES & RAMS

503 Ewes & Rams forward, larger ewes would be easier on the week in line with other centres. Topping the trade with a Texel ewe came from S & A Bland, Gaisgill at £198 followed by S Labbate at £182 & K Milburn & A Devlin & AT Lambert & Son both at £180. Beltex from L Blades made £182. Charollais followed at £175 & £168 for T Pounder. BFL Reached £155 for MK Verity and £142 for R Bland. 262 Swaledales forward top end ewes would be cheaper selling at £88 3 times and 10 lots between £75-£88 mid fleshed were slightly better at £59-£60 with grazing men looking for stronger sorts and leaner ewes had a good trade at £30-£50. Only a few Rams forward with Swales to £100 & £98.
